How to eat

Usage Scenes (Recommended Recipes, etc.)	A versatile flavor enhancer that complements a variety of dishes - from tamago kake gohan (rice topped with raw egg), natto (fermented soybeans), and yakiniku (grilled meat) to virtually any ingredient you desire. Experience the ultimate taste transformation simply by drizzling it on. When mixed with mayonnaise, it becomes an astonishingly delicious dip for vegetable sticks. It's also a fantastic addition to udon, pasta, fried rice, and sashimi, and as a condiment for hot pots, regardless of culinary style. Its convenience extends to outdoor dining as well.
Product Features (Key Points of Emphasis)	A versatile seasoning from Oita Prefecture, carefully prepared using only the stems of locally sourced chives. These chives are meticulously prepped and marinated in a special soy sauce, resulting in a harmonious blend of flavors and textures. This extraordinary condiment is so delicious it might bring tears to your eyes. Packed with high nutritional value, it contains abundant Vitamin A (carotene) and allicin, boasting impressive antioxidant properties and the potential to enhance immune function. Experience the sensation of taste like never before. This product is also gaining attention as a sustainable offering, aligning with environmentally conscious trends.
Target	From children to the elderly, irrespective of gender, this versatile and dynamic individual encompasses a playful spirit that resonates with both professional and personal spheres. Particularly prevalent among those in their forties and fifties, a phase where they give their all to both their careers and families, embodying a powerful zest for life.
Remarks	Operated within a HACCP-compliant facility, the Oita City brand certification "OitaBirth" has been granted. Additionally, the product has received the JAPAN FOOD SELECTION 2022 Grand Prize and the OMOTENASHI SELECTION 2022 Gold Award, showcasing its exceptional quality. The trademark "必然のニラ醤油" (Hitsuzen no Nira Shoyu) has been officially registered.

How to eat

Usage Scenes (Recommended Recipes, etc.)	Simply replace conventional yuzu kosho, kabosu kosho, etc. Use as condiment for sashimi, yakitori, ramen, udon and nabe. It is also useful for outdoor use.
Product Features (Key Points of Emphasis)	Fresh Oita City chives and salted green chilies from Kyushu are connected with dashi soy sauce. We pursued the flavor of green chilies and chives in the spiciness. The fresh spiciness and the deliciousness of chives are combined into one. Use it as a condiment for nabe (hot pot), ramen, udon noodles, etc. Focusing on flavor!
Target	For those who like spicy food and alcohol, regardless of gender. Those who want to dip and feel stimulated. Active and adventurous 50s.
